

Nominations

This committee is charged with studying the needs of each committee and the spiritual gifts of members in the congregation, and contacting members to match them with a committee. This committee invites persons to serve on committees and in leadership positions. They are accountable to the Charge Conference through the Church council. It is important that these committee members are committed to the responsibility of overseeing the leadership of our church.