

Service

This committee is charged with overseeing various ministries to be in service in the congregation, community, and world, providing ways to easily access these opportunities, and helping to match up those persons with gifts and graces to their ministry opportunities.